ORGANIZATIONAL MISSION STATEMENT

Focus on the Family is a nondenominational religious organization whose primary objective is to be led by the Holy Spirit in sharing the Gospel of Jesus Christ with as many people as possible by nurturing and affirming the God-ordained institution of the family and proclaiming biblical truths worldwide. The primary means of accomplishing these goals are radio broadcasts, periodicals, books, films, videos, internet and events which share the message with constituents, schools, churches and the public at large in the United States as well as around the world.

Focus on the Family was organized in California under the Nonprofit Religious Corporation Law exclusively for religious purposes. We are presently classified by the IRS under IRC Section 170(b)(1)(A)(i) as a church and as an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3).

According to the IRS, Focus on the Family is not required to file IRS Form 990 and we have elected not to file. Consequently, our Form 990 is not subject to Public Inspection; however, we plan to post a pro-forma 990 on our website and make copies available to donors.

General Explanation - Relationship Services

Relationship Services

Each week brings thousands of contacts, via email, phone calls, letters and social media, each seeking a response to unique requests associated with Focus on the Family's 6 stated Foundational Values. This direct communication is a vital link to the people we desire to serve. We also moderate most of Focus on the Family Forums and Blogs. Additionally, we reach out to members of the community, providing resources to those in need. Those who contact us are treated with dignity, care, and expertise. The many inquiries for information, advice, and encouragement are fielded and supported by a well-trained staff of 70, predominantly with earned degrees.

Counseling Consultation and Referral Outreach

Many of those who contact our ministry require specialized care. Focus on the Family is regularly called upon to assist and resource those experiencing painful and often destructive situations. Marriages in crisis, parenting dilemmas, pastoral leaders needing confidential care, and even incidents of spousal and child abuse are not uncommon. These pleas receive a reply by phone on a one-to-one basis. Most contacts are prompted by our radio broadcasts, which touch off an avalanche of "pain mail" and cries for help. In addition to the radio broadcast, callers become aware of the counseling/consultation we offer through

Focus on the Family websites, magazine articles, online video content and other ministry outreaches. Our staff of state-licensed mental health professionals, support staff, and pastoral counselors, respond to the critical letters and calls too complex for a mail, email, or other general response. No charge is made for consultation with the Focus on the Family counselor. Beyond this free consultation, when appropriate, callers are referred to Focus on the Family's marriage intensive counseling program or independent counselors around the nation who have been approved through a screening process for our Christian Counselors Network. Focus on the Family does not provide a categorical "endorsement" of therapists on the Christian Counselors

Network nor does it provide ongoing professional therapy by phone via these phone responses.

Bring Your Bible to School Day (www.bringyourbible.org)

Bring Your Bible to School Day is a nationwide, student-led movement to read and treasure scripture as God's Holy Word, to encourage others with the hope we have in Christ Jesus, and to celebrate our religious freedoms in the United States. It all culminates with Bring Your Bible to School Day on the first Thursday of October. This event empowers Christian students of all ages to speak God's grace and truth into the culture around them, starting with two simple steps - bringing their Bibles to school and sharing what God's Word means to them.

Bring Your Bible to School Day is part of a bigger program called Live It Challenges. The Live It Challenges offer students a way to keep the movement of Bring Your Bible to School Day going all year round! We are challenging students and families to put into practice the "Live It" portion of our motto "Bring It. Share It. Live It." We provide monthly challenges - specific, tangible actions they can take to live out their faith and strengthen their relationship with Jesus Christ.
